

Russia Sends Telephone Bill

Reds Imply Lines Will Be Severed

Berlin, June 5—(AP)—Russia called on the United States today to pay Communist East Germany 14 million dollars for the use of official telephone lines to Berlin since the end of World War II.

A letter from the Soviet control commission to the U. S. high commissioner's office implied the official lines will be severed unless the United States pays.

In this newest squeeze on communications to and from divided Berlin, American authorities were accused of refusing to meet communications bills submitted in the past by the postal ministry of the East German "Democratic Republic."

The Communists cut 19 telephone lines between West Berlin and West Germany last week. At the same time, they blocked West Berlin lines to the Soviet sector of the city.

The new Soviet demand confronted Americans with the choice of either recognizing the satellite East German government as a fact and paying its extremely high rates or risking summary stoppage of official land-line communications.

However, the western powers, apprehensive since the 1948-49 blockade, have constructed large radio-telephone and radio-teletype transmitters here for just such an emergency.

The Soviet-backed demand obviously set a pattern for further Soviet claims that all three western powers here are liable to heavy charges for East German roads, railways and even air corridors for maintaining themselves in this city 100 miles behind the iron curtain.

Anti-Communist Mayor Ernest Reuter warned today Russia is spreading fear in West Germany that Berlin is "an untenable island position that cannot be held for long."

In a fighting speech to the West Berlin parliament, he called on the Bonn government to speed legislation providing raw materials and markets for the Allied sectors' industries.

Rescued Man Says Koj's Red Bosses Rule By Torture

Koje Island, Korea, Friday, June 5—(AP)—A prisoner rescued from a Koj compound said Thursday the Red bosses inside still rule by torture and terror despite the crack-down of camp authorities.

While the bosses may be aware of their days of iron rule are numbered, the prisoner said they still hold Kangaroo court, beat and torture anti-Communist prisoners, kill them and bury them secretly.

In the first prisoner interview yet permitted on this troubled island, the North Korean said he himself had been marked for death when U. S. soldiers burst into compound 85 Wednesday. He and 16 others were rescued.

Meanwhile, camp authorities restored food rations to three defiant compounds, including No. 85, where prisoners were believed to be hoarding food against the day it would be needed in an uprising.

Headquarters of Brig. Gen. Haydon L. Boatner, camp commander, disclosed that food was withheld on three days this week because guards were preparing "offensive action" to regain control of the unruly stockades.

The latest of these actions came Thursday when U. S. infantrymen, led by tanks, marched unopposed into compound 607, divided it in half with a barbed wire barrier, and herded half of the 3,340 jeering Red civilian prisoners into the new enclosure.

Boatner himself walked into the compound during the operation. It was the first time he had entered a prisoner pen since he took command three weeks ago.

29,000 Men Called For August Draft

Washington, June 5—(AP)—The army today called for a draft of 29,000 men in August, a drop of 2,000 under the July quota.

The August figure will raise to 983,490 the number of men selective service has been called upon to deliver since the draft was revived in September, 1950. Of that total, the Army asked for 902,000 and the marines 81,490.

The navy and the air force have been relying exclusively on volunteers and recall of reserves. Starting this month, the marines are likewise relying on voluntary enlistments to fill their manpower needs.

'Do Nothing' Peace Talks Continue

Munsan, Friday, June 6—(AP)—The Communists today charged that three civilians were wounded yesterday when Allied artillery tossed shell fragments into the neutral zone around the truce conference site of Panmunjom.

The Reds, in a note handed to Allied liaison officers today at Panmunjom, said the civilians were standing along the edge of the neutral zone.

It said Allied artillery was firing at Communist soldiers outside the zone who had come out of their trenches to watch a United Nations command air strike at hills near Panmunjom.

The note was delivered shortly before truce delegates met for today's session.

The Allies accused the Reds yesterday of demanding that anti-Communist prisoners of war be herded back to them like cattle.

Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison, Jr., in Thursday's bitter session reminded the Communists that about 100,000 of the 170,000 prisoners in Allied camps say they would rather die than return to Red rule.

"Are you insisting," Harrison demanded, "that the United Nations command force these people, against their will, and at the point of a bayonet to return to you?"

"Are you insisting that our side handcuff, chain or otherwise bind these persons and ship them back to you like cattle?"

Gen. Nam Il, the North Korean head of the Red delegation, made no reply but asked for another meeting today.

GI Bill Of Rights For Korean Vets Passed By House

Washington, June 5—(AP)—A new GI Bill of Rights for men discharged from the armed forces since the start of fighting in Korea was passed by the House today. A 361 to 1 roll call vote sent it to the Senate.

It would provide education benefits for all armed forces personnel who were in the armed forces on or after June 27, 1950, whether they served in the Korean theater or not.

Generally, the measure is the same as the GI Bill of Rights for World War II veterans. One change, which sponsors said would eliminate many abuses of that program, calls for government payments direct to the veterans of all tuition fees and costs of books and other education expenses, as well as their personal subsistence payments.

Under the old program, the government has been paying subsistence directly but making tuition and supplies payments to the schools attended by the veterans.

Rep. Springer (R-Ill.) had protested against the provision calling for direct payments to the veterans in lieu of the schools, and others who supported his position expressed hope that the Senate would knock it out.

The education provisions call for maximum monthly payments of $110 to qualified veterans without dependents. Those with dependents would get up to $150 a month.

Scaled-down grants are allowed for veterans who take only part-time schooling or on-the-job training.

Benefits would be given on the basis of 14 days of training for each day of service since June 27, 1950, with a maximum service credit of 36 months.

Chances To Win Improved By Ike's Speech, Taft Says

Cincinnati, June 5—(AP)—Senator Robert A. Taft said tonight that as a result of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's speech yesterday he felt his chances to win the Republican presidential nomination "on the whole have improved."

"And they were good before," he declared in answering a question put him at a nation wide "Reporters Roundup" broadcast over the Mutual Broadcasting system.

Asked if he thought the "bitterness" of the campaign would jeopardize Republican chances in the November election, he replied firmly: "No, I do not."

He went on to explain that bitterness and vigorous campaigning had left no mark in his other political contests.

Earlier, he told his audience that he is under the impression that Gen. Eisenhower favors repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act.

GIRL'S CURIOSITY EMPTIES BANK

Bartonville, Ill., June 5—(AP)—A three-year-old girl's curiosity put a halt to business at the Bartonville bank for five hours today.

Susan Lynn Keith, of nearby Peoria, was with her grandmother, Mrs. Gertrude Gadden, who had just concluded a real estate deal in the private office of Cashier L. G. Fishel.

Susan saw an interesting looking switch. The bank emptied of some 15 employees and customers in one minute flat.

The switch operated the bank's tear gas system. Five hours later, after windows and doors had been opened and fans turned on, employees were able to re-enter the building.

Charge Gen. Grow Failed To Guard Army Information

Washington, June 5—(AP)—The army announced today that Maj. Gen. Robert W. Grow, author of a diary flayed by Red spies and used for propaganda purposes, will stand trial before a court martial of eight high-ranking generals.

The trial will be held behind closed doors at Fort Meade, Md. The date was not disclosed.

On April 28 the army announced it was investigating charges that Grow (1) improperly reported secret military information in private records and (2) failed to safeguard secret information. The army said today it had completed this investigation and found that a trial was warranted.

Grow was military attaché in Moscow. While he was on a visit to Frankfurt, Germany, last year agents apparently slipped into his room and photographed his diary.

Russian propagandists used excerpts to bolster their war-mongering charges against the United States. Published quotations attributed to Grow had him advocating: "War! As soon as possible! Now!"

If convicted of the court martial charges, the 57-year-old general could face a maximum penalty of five years confinement, dismissal from the army, and forfeiture of pay and allowances. However, a much less severe penalty also could be imposed.

Grow is a much decorated veteran of both world wars. He served in the cavalry in World War I and commanded the 6th Armored division in the battle of Normandy and in the ensuing campaign across France into Germany in World War II.

The army said the court martial will not be open to the public because security aspects require secrecy.

Governor Seeks Atomic Plant For S. Illinois

Springfield, June 5—Governor Stevenson will go to Washington Tuesday in an attempt to encourage location of a new billion dollar atomic plant in southern Illinois.

The governor will confer with M. W. Boyer, general manager of the atomic energy commission. Southern Illinois industrialists and economists are preparing reports for Stevenson to present to Boyer.

The proposed plant which would cover from 5,000 to 6,000 acres, would employ 4,500 persons.

EX-ILLINI GRIDDER GETS ARMY TRAINING
Camp Pickett, Va., June 5—(AP)—Private William J. Vohaska, former All-American football star at the University of Illinois, has arrived here for training at the medical replacement training center. Vohaska was captain and center of the 1950 Illinois football team. His home is at Riverside, Ill.

Elizabeth, First Queen To Take Salute At 'Trooping Of The Color'

London, June 5—(AP)—Queen Elizabeth II stayed put in the side-saddle on a restive horse today and while thousands watched, took the salute at the traditional trooping of the color.

She became Britain's first queen to take the salute at the color ceremony, started about 300 years ago as a sobering-up exercise for unruly troops. But she had done it last year as a princess on behalf of her ailing father, King George VI.

Her mount on both occasions was a chestnut stallion called Winston. Loaned her by the London police. Last year he was docile. Today he wasn't.

Maybe it was the heat. Three troopers, a drummer and 680 onlookers fainted on and around the sunny Horse Guards parade grounds as thermometers reached 75 in the shade—10 degrees above London's normal for the date.

Winston was nervous as 1,074 scarlet-uniformed British troops marched past. Once he backed away and almost carried the queen under

Steelman Hopeful In Steel Crisis

Washington, June 5—(AP)—Guarded optimism was expressed by high administration officials tonight over the prospects for an early agreement between management and union to end the four-day-old steel strike.

Sen. McFarland of Arizona, the administration floor leader, told the Senate there is a possibility the strike of 650,000 CIO Steelworkers, which has put a crippling crimp in the nation's production of the vital metal, may be settled by Monday.

And John R. Steelman, presidential assistant who brought management and officials of Philip Murray's union together in new negotiations at the White House this morning, announced after an all-day session that "more real" bargaining had been done than at any time since the dispute began eight months ago.

"I certainly am not pessimistic," Steelman told newsmen, "but I wouldn't want to overstate my optimism."

A hopeful sign came from Detroit, too. The Detroit Steel Corp., which employs about 4,500 men, announced that it had reached agreement with the union on a new contract. Details were not immediately disclosed, and it was not known whether the settlement might provide a pattern for a nation-wide contract.

McFarland led a successful fight in the Senate to delay what he termed interference by it in the delicate negotiations.

Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) had proposed to write into an extension of the Defense Production Act a recommendation to President Truman to invoke emergency sections of the Taft-Hartley act, which permit 80-day no-strike injunctions in such strikes.

Byrd said the strike imperils the nation's safety and the president should use the tools at hand to cope with it.

McFarland pleaded against action on the Byrd proposal, and won a delay until Monday by a vote of 42 to 38. He didn't say so in so many words, but the implication was that White House talks if there was a union might stalk out of the move to bring the Taft-Hartley act into the picture.

Steelman said there had been no discussion of steel price boosts which the government might approve for the industry to offset, at least in part, any wage concessions to the union.

The negotiators themselves withheld comment, except to note that the talks were still in progress, but on the whole the circumstances for a settlement appeared to be more favorable than at any time since the first of the year, when the old contract expired.

The government, meanwhile, took further steps to conserve dwindling steel supplies. It halted exports of all steel mill products except those "essential to direct military production of the United States or friendly countries or essential to direct defense-supporting industries"—such as a machine tool plant.

An embargo had already been clamped on all warehouse deliveries to U. S. producers of consumer goods, such as automobiles and refrigerators.

Unemployment due to the strike neared the 100,000 mark as lack of steel forced railroads, mine owners and other industries to lay off their workers.

Foreign Aid Bill Of $6,400,000,000 Goes To Senate

Washington, June 5—(AP)—The House passed and sent to the Senate today a final bill authorizing more than $6,400,000,000 for foreign military and economic aid next year.

The roll call vote was 230 to 115. With only brief debate, the House approved the measure hammered out Tuesday in a joint Senate-House conference. Final Senate action is expected shortly.

The measure represents only authorizations. The actual funds remain to be voted, and much of the same debate over foreign aid may be gone over again.

The authorization bill includes $4,598,424,500 for military assistance. A presidential veto was regarded as unlikely, however, despite the fact that the measure authorizes 18.6 per cent or $1,468,750,250 less than he asked.

Well-informed quarters said Truman will probably sign the bill, perhaps criticizing it as inadequate. He could, of course, send up a request later for supplemental funds.

The legislation represents a compromise worked out by Senate-House conferees in settling conflicts between separate versions passed by the two chambers. It is merely an authorization, not an appropriation. Actual funds will have to be voted later.

The queen carried a steady, white-gloved hand on the reins. Each time she guided the stallion back into place, tapping him with a short crop and patting him with a hand.

She sat erect and smiling in scarlet jacket, with the vivid blue sash of the Order of the Garter. She wore a smart little tricorn hat with the silver badge of the Scots Guards.

The color ceremony, the British army's most spectacular show, celebrated the official birthday of the British monarch. Queen Elizabeth was 26 on April 21, but her official birthday was today just as was her father's. The later date is selected in hope of a break from the weather.

Cheering crowds estimated at nearly 200,000 lined the tree-lined mall from Buckingham Palace to the parade grounds to watch the royal procession.

Six military bands massed forces in a solid block of 333 men played stirring march music

'Peace And Security In World,' Ike Calls The Campaign Issue

Bill On Economic Controls Held Up In Senate

Washington, June 5—(AP)—The Senate tonight put off action on the economic controls bill until Monday in a maneuver by administration leaders to stave off a vote on an amendment offered by Senator Byrd (D-Va.).

The amendment would request President Truman to invoke the Taft-Hartley act to halt the nation-wide steel strike, which Byrd declared is imperiling the national safety.

After a hot argument over the proposal, the Senate voted 42 to 38 to put off further action on the pending bill to extend the government's powers to control such things as wages, prices, rents and materials.

Democratic leader McFarland of Arizona and other administration men fought the Byrd amendment hard. McFarland noted that union-management negotiations in the steel increase were under way at the White House, and said a settlement might possibly be reached by next Monday or Tuesday, if nothing was done to disturb them.

Before the postponement the Senate slapped down a series of Republican-led moves to suspend or curb federal controls over the nation's economy.

The chamber: 1. Rejected 54 to 27 an amendment by Sen. Dirksen (R-Ill.) seeking to suspend all price controls next Sept. 1 unless the president should find that individual items were scarce or threatened to cause inflation.

2. Beat down, 46 to 29, an amendment by Sen. Caine (R-Wash.) to give veto power to local city councils over any federal decision to restore rent controls to a previously decontrolled community.

Temporarily sidetracking legislative efforts to end the nationwide steel strike, the Senate pitched in to the controls battle with administration forces clearly holding the whip hand, at least for the time being.

Unless extended by congress, the controls law, known as the Defense Production Act, expires June 30. Senate bill would extend it for eight months.

Opposing the Dirksen amendment to suspend price lids, Chairman Maybank (D-SC) of the Senate banking committee said it would "kill price controls."

Foreign Aid Bill Of $6,400,000,000 Goes To Senate

Sacramento Jolted By Atomic Blast

Las Vegas, Nev., June 5—(AP)—The AEC closed out its spring series of atomic tests on the desert near here today with a tower blast which lit the predawn sky a bright orange.

The resulting jolt was felt nearly 300 miles away in California's capital of Sacramento—apparently by the same sort of freak atmospheric which rattled windows in Los Angeles on the preceding tests. Scientists said the sound waves bounced off air layers.

Carroll L. Tyler, AEC's test manager, announced several hours after the blast that it ends the current series.

GLAMOR TRAIN RETAINS GLAMOR AFTER FIFTY YEARS

Chicago, June 6—(AP)—The glamor train of the New York Central system will be 50 years old this month, but you'd never know it.

The train is the Twentieth Century limited. Actually, it's two trains, one coursing each direction between New York and Chicago every day.

It was June 15, 1902 when the Century steamed out of New York on its maiden run, carrying 42 passengers including notables of that day. The train then was a five-car special—three sleepers, an observation-diner, and a super-smoker which housed a train secretary, complete with office typewriter; a barber shop, and a valet service.

Nowadays, the diesel-drawn train usually has 16 cars, including a mail car. All the old services are there. And now, there's radio-telephone service and a shower bath.

It began service on a 20-hour schedule—the time set for the 961-mile New York-Chicago run by the Century's predecessor, the exposition flyer which operated during the Chicago World's fair. Now the trip is made in 16½ hours.

The New York Central literally rolls out the red carpet for its Century passengers each day before departure of the train from Grand Central Terminal in New York. In Chicago's LaSalle street station, the boarding ceremony isn't quite so plushy.

Saturday Canvass To Find Winner In South Dakota

Sioux Falls, S.D., June 5—(AP)—An official canvass by county auditors Saturday will determine whether Sen. Robert A. Taft or Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower won South Dakota's 14 Republican national convention delegates.

Nearly complete unofficial returns from Tuesday's presidential primary election indicated Taft had won his last vote battle with Eisenhower before the Chicago convention. However, Eisenhower supporters refused to concede a thing. They said they'd wait for the canvass.

With only seven of the state's 1,950 precincts missing, Taft maintained a scant 639-vote margin. The count gave: Taft 64,749; Eisenhower 64,110.

On that basis, Taft had won 50.249 per cent of the votes and Eisenhower 49.751.

Charles R. Hayes, head of the Taft slate of delegates, said the election was "a lot closer contest than we expected. Our reports indicated that Taft would get a heavier farm vote than he did."

"Certainly we claim a victory even though it's by a narrow margin. But it isn't what we hoped for."

There are not enough votes in the seven missing precincts to take the victory from Taft, unless county auditors find some glaring errors in tabulations. The missing precincts were unavailable because election boards had locked the poll books in with the ballots. They cannot be opened before the official canvass.

15. Aid to education should be a local function—and federal aid should be given only in areas which are unable to give their children an adequate education.

16. He believes soil conservation programs should be controlled locally as far as possible and as for price supports—"we must make certain that (farmers) never suffer disaster due to natural causes and things which they can not foresee."

17. In this sweeping range of subjects, Eisenhower stripped away much of the mystery that surrounded his views while he still wore the five-starred uniform of the supreme commander of Allied forces in Europe.

Federal-Owned Corn Price Rises One Cent A Bushel

Decatur, Ill., June 5—(AP)—A one cent bushel raise in the base price of government-owned surplus corn in Illinois was announced today by the state Production and Marketing Administration.

Less than a third of the government's December, 1950 stocks of Illinois corn—about 66,480,000 bushels—now are available for sale to livestock feeders and other eligible buyers, the agency said.

The corn cannot be sold for less than the PMA's formula price set for each county. For June, the base price is the 1951 county corn price support loan rate plus 25 cents a bushel. The loan rate varies by counties, from $1.56 to $1.63 a bushel. Thus the June price ranges from $1.81 to $1.88 a bushel.

Howard G. Abbott, state PMA committee chairman, said there are 27-836,132 bushels available for sale. The bulk is 1948 crop corn acquired by the government under price support operations.

The government has an additional 17 million bushels of Illinois corn in storage, but it is earmarked as a reserve for possible national defense needs.

Faith In Republican Principles

Abilene, Kans., June 5—(AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower broadened his free-swinging fight for the Republican presidential nomination today by revealing his views on everything from civil rights to his boyhood dreams. He named the campaign issue as world peace and security.

Never refusing an answer to any of the controversial questions fired at him during his first major out-of-uniform news conference, Eisenhower gave his reply to the pun: "I like Ike—but what does like Ike?"

Eisenhower told the reporters and a nationwide radio and television audience:

1. The great issue of the campaign is peace and security in the world.

2. He thinks the states should handle the problem of fair employment practices rather than the federal government.

3. He believes everyone is entitled to decent medical care—but he's against socialization in medicine.

4. He is against legislation that would compel people to work and believes a way must be found to preserve labor's gains in a climate of understanding between all groups.

5. He believes in wage-price controls in war time, but in the long run has more faith in the normal influences of supply and demand than in any direct controls by government.

6. For Republican Policy

7. He is in general accord with the principles of the Republican policy statement of Feb. 6, 1950, but certain specific details were a little different from what he would say.

8. The government needs a complete overhaul by someone who has not been obligated in the build-up during the past 20 years.

9. He believes if the United States permits western Europe to fall to Communism, the cost to America will be back-breaking and this nation will be in mortal danger.

10. He is in the campaign "with heart and soul" to win if possible.

11. Because of the enemy buildup across the Yalu river, he does not believe the Allies can win victory on the ground in Korea. He thinks the Allies must stand firm and try to get a decent armistice.

12. He believes the Democrats as the party in power must take some responsibility for the loss of China to the Communists, which he called an "international disaster of the first magnitude."

13. He believes it would be dangerous to extend the Korean war until the Allies have a bigger buildup of military force.

14. He favors rooting Communists out of government, but believes it can be done without smearing the innocent.

15. Aid to education should be a local function—and federal aid should be given only in areas which are unable to give their children an adequate education.

Pilgrimage To Mooseheart Will Be Made June 8

A Big Ten football coach, a newspaper publisher, and a state's attorney, are expected to represent a giant class of 1,000 new members of the Moose next Sunday, June 8, as the highlight of Illinois Day at Mooseheart.

Ray Elliot, head coach of the Big Ten champion Illinois, William M. Hart, publisher of the Aurora Beacon-News, and John Friedland, Kane County state's attorney, are expected to be the representatives of the candidates during the colorful enrollment ceremony, said Otto Meyers, regional director for the Moose.

More than 30,000 Moose members of their families and friends are expected to converge on the famous "Child City" for the celebration, he said. The annual pilgrimage has become a tradition in fraternal circles through the years and this year's event promises to be the biggest ever.

A crowded calendar of events has been scheduled including conducted tours, physical education demonstrations, parades, drills, band concerts and dances, said Meyers. An innovation this year will be a program of games, races and tests of skill for the visiting youngsters, with valuable prizes awarded the winners.

The full-day program is scheduled to start at 10 a.m. and continue through the afternoon. Ample facilities for parking of the thousands of automobiles, buses and other modes of travel have been provided. There will also be special picnic areas set aside for the thousands of visitors.

Tradition-Breaking Offering Give Party For Miss Muntman To Be Wed Sunday

Breaking a tradition which has been maintained through his 27 years as president, Dr. Clarence P. McClelland asked for a free will offering at the MacMurray College commencement exercises Sunday evening. He announced the money would be applied to completing payment for the new organ now being installed in Annie Merner chapel by the alumnae of the institution.

The large congregation contributed $995.24 in cash, checks and pledges at the service, and additional gifts amounting to $260.01 poured into the president's office the next morning, making a grand total of $1,255.25. An undetermined amount of further contributions made over the weekend will swell the totals still more. All but about $5,000 remains of the total cost of purchasing and installing the organ. The total cost is $47,700.

Dr. McClelland said "this generous offering by the friends of MacMurray is deeply appreciated by the college and its alumnae. We hope the many other friends of the college who were unable to attend Sunday's commencement will now join their neighbors in helping to pay for the new organ."

It is expected the organ will be fully installed in about two months.

Waverly 4-H Club Acclaimed For Activities

The Waverly 4-H club received special notice when the Home Bureau board of Morgan and Scott counties met Wednesday at the Farm Bureau Hall. The 27 girls in the Waverly club have enrolled in 59 projects. Mrs. W. W. Ford, county 4-H chairman, told the board.

Mrs. H. E. Rilling of Waverly was commended as leader of one of the most active 4-H groups in the two counties.

Morgan has 18 clubs this year. Miss Patricia Ringer reported, and Scott has eight. There are 40 more girls enrolled this season than were listed on club membership lists last summer.

She discussed the Rural Youth camp which will be conducted June 20-21 at the 4-H camping site on Lake Jacksonville. Young people from 15 surrounding counties have been invited. Reservations must be in by Saturday.

Mrs. Frances King, home adviser, spoke of the Farm and Home Improvement contest in which the two counties will participate. Five Scott county families have already entered the contest. A meeting is to be held here Friday to explain the rules and accept entry registrations from families in Morgan county.

Mrs. Eugene Dodsworth read a letter from the Council of Social Agencies asking the Home Bureau to send a representative to its meeting June 17. Mrs. Theodore Pierce was appointed to attend the session.

Mrs. W. G. Watt and Mrs. J. E. Long were named delegates to a citizens conference at Bradley University, Peoria, June 17. Any interested members may attend.

The next meeting of the board will be held July 2, along with a session of the advisory council. The Home Bureau program for 1952-53 will be planned.

UPSETTING EXPERIENCE—Bewildered and embarrassed, this usually-imperturbable guardsman of the Royal Horse Guards reaches for his helmet after being unseated during a full-dress rehearsal of the Trooping of the Colors in London. Arenzville Home Ec Teacher Will Do Summer Work Arenzville—Mrs. Norvin Foster, homemaker teacher of Arenzville high school, is doing her summer work in the Arenzville community for two weeks after the close of school.

This time will be spent in a number of services which can not all be done conveniently during the regular school year. The school desires that the homemaker teacher use part of her time to supervise the summer home experiences of the high school pupils. Mrs. Foster will visit these girls in their homes which will enable the parents to know the teacher and help homemaker to be a community project with parents, pupils and teacher working together to make the homemaker program a community project.

Mrs. Foster is also interested in being of service to adults in this community. Any person is requested to make her or his wants known. The dates for the summer homemaker work are June 2 through June 13 and August 18 through August 29.

On Saturday, June 7, the Arenzville Future Homemakers of America are responsible for judging the section 13 F. H. A. yearbooks. That will start at 1:00 o'clock in the afternoon at the homemaker room with Maxine Strickler, F. H. A. Section 7 projects chairman, in charge.

Three monthly F. H. A. meetings have been planned for the summer. Althea Fricke, F. H. A. president, has announced that the first meeting will be on Wednesday afternoon June 11 at 4 p.m. It will be a hike and wiener roast, and all F. H. A. members will meet at the homemaker building. Bring your own wieners and buns.

If you have a problem that F. H. A. or the homemaker teacher can help, please let us be of service to you.

Day Unit Meets
The Day unit of the Home Bureau met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gilbert Early with two guests, Mrs. John Meyer and Mrs.

F. N. McLaren, present. Mrs. Arthur Woods was welcomed as a new member.

The major lesson on "Being Well Groomed Every Day" was given by Mrs. John Neece. Mrs. Charles Arnold gave the minor lesson on "Making Belt Loops" and Mrs. A. R. McConathy the health lesson, "Flies."

Hostesses were Mrs. C. L. Drake and Mrs. Karl Brehne.

The temperature on the planet Mercury is hot enough to melt lead and tin.

SIGNS OF TROUBLE—When Harry Kahn put up a sign "Lowest Prices in Town" over his Detroit clothing store, William Broad, his next-door competitor, saw a golden opportunity. Broad put up a sign, in the same red lettering, that read: "At Wm. Broad's." To all practical purposes, that made his and Kahn's advertisements all one big sign—with Broad's business getting a big boost at half cost. In the rubout, both men wound up in the prosecutor's office. Law officials could find nothing wrong with either half of the sign, but a surveyor's measurements showed that Broad's "A" encroached on Kahn's half of the building. So he will have to shave the "A," but still holds the upper hand as far as the customers are concerned.

"Best I Ever Used For Cakes" Says Mrs. Otto Smith Of Mrs. Tucker's Shortening

"I have used Mrs. Tucker's Shortening ever since it came out on display," says Mrs. Otto Smith of 122 Hardin, Jacksonville, "and can truthfully say it's the best I have ever used in baking cakes, and I have baked many! It makes a finer grained, more moist cake, and it also fries chicken brownier. In all, it's tops as far as I'm concerned. Try it, ladies, and give your home-town product, Mrs. Tucker's Shortening, a break!"

"I understand that anyone can bake a cake with Mrs. Tucker's Shortening, using any recipe that calls for shortening, and if you don't agree that your cake is better than any cake you ever baked before, using ANY other kind of shortening, then all you do is send the recipe to Mrs. Tucker's Homemakers Department, Sherman, Texas, telling what you didn't like about the cake, and Mrs. Tucker's will repay you for all the ingredients used, PLUS a dollar for your baking time. That's the kind of cake insurance any woman would like to have when she bakes, and I can certainly recommend Mrs. Tucker's Shortening for anyone to try!"

Jurges Polished Mathews' Third Basing To Give Braves' 'New Ruth' Quick Start

By MURRAY OLDERMAN
NEA Staff Correspondent
New York—(NEA) They're calling the Braves' rookie, Ed Mathews, the new Babe Ruth, but his long distance slugging alone didn't land the cherub-cheeked lad his job.

Mathews didn't figure to stick this season because he was supposed to be a weak sister around third base.

"Yeah, they said he was weak in the field," agrees one of the Boston pitchers, "but I should only be so weak."

First, there's nothing puny about a 20-year-old kid who weighs a solid 194 pounds. And he's been moving that weight with creditable agility around third base. Modest Ed gives Coach Billy Jurges, the old Cub and Giant shortstop, credit.

"Billy worked on me all Spring," says the youngster. "He made me bend my knees more to get a better shot at the ball."

Mathews' average hasn't been soaring like his left-handed home run shots. Southpaws give him lots of trouble.

"But," he smiles, "it didn't stop me from hitting my first major league homer off a lefty—Ken Heintzelman—in Philadelphia."

"My biggest thrill? Just being in the big leagues is thrill enough for me."

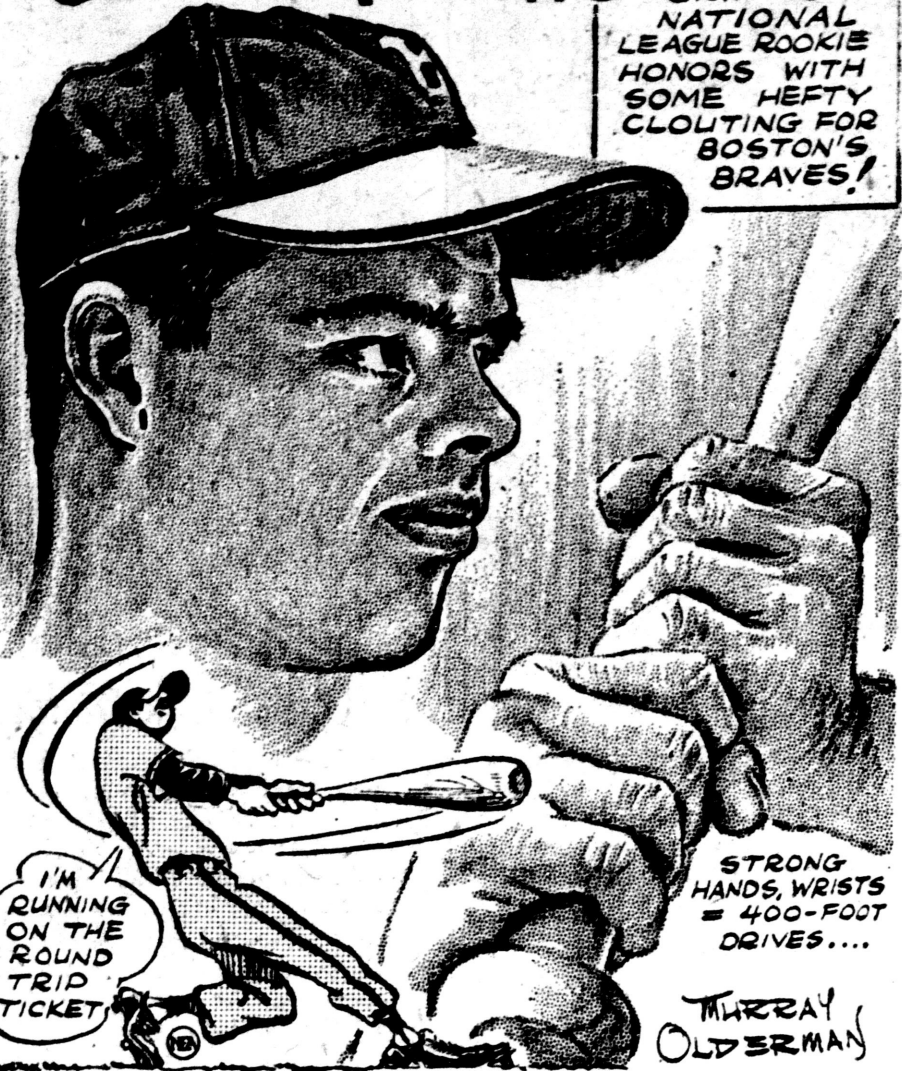

Eddie made it in two years after spurning 14 other bids to sign with the Braves the night of his high school graduation in 1949.

"One o'clock in the morning to be exact," he recalls.

"Why the Braves? Well, I figured Bob Elliott was getting old, and they were my best bet."

HOMERS TRAVEL 400 FEET
By 1951 he had solidified his future with his long range clouting at Atlanta. His 32 homers are still ividly recalled in the Southern Association. No Chinese homers for Mathews. His go 400 feet or more, propelled by fine wrist action.

Power almost made a campus football hero of him. He was a prep fullback in Santa Barbara, and a good one. His team held St. Anthony's of Long Beach to a tie in southern California's championship game. And who did the Long Beach team have opposite Eddie at full-back? Just about the best in the nation today—Johnny Olszewski of California.

Mathews could have gone to any school on the coast or to Georgia, but chose baseball instead. Any regrets?

"Are you kidding?" grins Ed Mathews, soaking in the big league atmosphere around him.

FAN BREEZES

BY BOB MERRIS

We were visiting a farmer friend the other day. While talking we noticed a rooster strut up to a parked tractor that had spilled some gasoline that had spilled from the tank. Suddenly the rooster began running crazily in circles and finally fell on his side and lay still. "Must have run out of gas," the farmer quipped.

That's just about the story of the heavyweight championship fight between Jersey Joe Walcott and challenger Ezzard Charles last night. The pair mixed it up pretty heatedly for the first nine rounds, then "ran out of gas" and waltzed the remaining frames.

There was no question that elderly Jersey Joe was a heavy sentimental favorite among the television audience that we joined. Suppose it was the same all over town. The old timer is a gentleman and reflects nothing but clean living and honor of the highest order on the sometimes-shady ring profession.

But Joe's championship days are numbered. Some good youngsters are coming along fast. Watch Jack Turley's "Athlete" Harry Matthews. Bet he's the next heavyweight champ—and not too long from now.

All-Star baseball voting starts today. You'll notice a ballot in this newspaper. Fill it out with your favorite diamond stars, send it to us, thereby lending your voice to the thousands of fans who will select the teams. Voting ends on June 27.

The Chicago Hot-Ten-Tots, popular colored softball team, will play at Nichols Park next Saturday and Sunday, June 14th and 15th. It was declared last night. Owner Dick Hudson has been training his ball club in the Detroit area for the past three weeks and opening of a heavy schedule for the Chicago lads.

The local league teams will soon be selected to play the Tots. Maybe you fans have an idea who you'd like to see play the Chicago team. Drop us a post card with your choice.

The Nichols Park swimming pool is a popular place these warm June days and evenings. Warren Flower is managing the tank this summer. The Red Cross-YMCA lessons will begin there Monday morning, June 8th.

Ex-Northwestern griddler Bob Tunnichiff, football coach at Wethersfield high school, resigned today to join the coaching staff at Havana high school. His teams won 11 games, lost two and tied three during his two years at Wethersfield.

Local drivers claim that they learned some new stunts watching Art Swenson's Thrillade in action here last Sunday and they're going to try them out in the run-for-the-money this evening.

Sonny Gross, young Quincy pilot, is still the leading driver on the circuit. The youth has piloted his 144 to every feature victory but one thus far.

Time trials start at 7 p.m. with the first race scheduled for 8.

TV WATCHERS MISS DECISION ON FIGHT

New York, June 5—(AP)—Millions of television fight fans were cut off from sight or sound of the Jersey Joe Walcott-Ezzard Charles fight tonight—right at the crucial moment of the decision.

A National Broadcasting company announcer explained that the television mobile unit in Philadelphia had lost power after successfully transmitting the full 15 rounds of the fight.

After a few minutes of silence, the announcer said Walcott had retained his world championship heavyweight title.

Shortly thereafter viewers could hear the Philadelphia announcer of the round-by-round scoring, but did not get a picture until after Joe and Ezzard had left the ring, and preparations had begun for a following fight.

Alonzo Stagg Honored Guest At Chicago U.

Chicago, June 6—(AP)—Amos Alonzo Stagg, grand old man of football—returned tonight to the school where he coached for 40 years, and wept before men he welded into some of the nation's greatest grid teams.

Stagg, who will be 90 this summer, told a dinner given in his honor by the University of Chicago "C" club that the reunion was "full of emotion."

The spry octogenarian told the lettermen: "You may not have accomplished great things but if you've understood yourselves you've been what God wanted you to be. If you've been honest, good and true, you have fulfilled your mission."

Stagg, who coached Chicago teams from 1892 to 1932, said he promised God as youth to work with young men to "make them see and understand themselves so they could understand the powers they possess."

"I have never let down on that promise," he added.

Stagg told the former Chicago athletes: "I shall think of you and pray for you all the days of my life. God bless you."

And then he wept.

Among the lettermen at the 49th annual "C" men's banquet was the captain of Stagg's first University of Chicago football team, Dr. Andrew Wyant.

Lawrence A. Kimpton, university chancellor, told the diners Stagg represents "good clean sports in America."

"I think," Kimpton said, "the things Stagg represents need a renaissance on this campus and other campuses all over the country."

Stagg has been co-coach of football at Susquehanna University, Selingsgrove, Pa., since 1947. He coached teams at the college of the Pacific, Stockton, Calif., from 1933 to 1947.

Western Michigan Blanks Illinois 1-0, Wins NCAA

Champaign, Ill., June 5—(AP)—Western Michigan, champion of the Mid-America league, today defeated Illinois, 1-0, and advance to the finals of the National Collegiate Athletic Association championship starting in Omaha, Neb., next week.

It was Western Michigan's second consecutive triumph in the NCAA district four playoffs.

Bob Urda of Western Michigan bested Illinois' Olive Pollmer in the pitching duel, allowing but four hits. Pollmer yielded only five singles, but three came in the fourth inning to produce the Bronco's winning mark.

Two Illinois hits in the final inning, but center fielder Jack Baldwin made a running catch to snag Lou Kautz back to the fence and save the game.

38-Year Old Heavyweight Champion Gains Decision Over Charles In Dull Bout

Philadelphia, June 5—(AP)—Jersey Joe Walcott, 38-year old Cinderella man of the ring, clung to his world heavyweight boxing title tonight by winning a unanimous decision over ex-champ Ezzard Charles.

This was a dull fight in contrast to the thriller last July 18 at Forbes Field when underdog Walcott won boxing's richest prize with a clean cut knockout.

There were no knockdowns in the closely fought contest although both men were wobbled with right hand shots.

Walcott at 196½ had five pounds on Charles, who at 191½ was the heavier of the two.

Proving once more that old champs never come back, the incredible old father of six kids from Camden, N. J., shook off bombing shots by Charles to grab the votes of all three officials in a slow fight at Municipal stadium.

Referee Zach Clayton, who repeatedly warned Charles for low blows in the third, fifth and 13th rounds, voted Walcott his biggest margin, 9-6. Judge Buck McTiernan, who refereed the Pittsburgh match last July when Walcott knocked out Charles to win the title on the fifth try, had it for Walcott 8-7. Judge Pete Tomasco scored it for Walcott 7-6-2.

The Associated Press card had Charles a 7-6-2 winner.

There was considerable disagreement at ringside among the working press at the close-out verdict.

Bidding to become the first ex-heavy champ ever to regain his title where such greats as Jim Corbett, Bob Fitzsimmons, Jim Jeffries, Jack Dempsey, Max Schmelling and Joe Louis failed, Charles failed like all the rest.

Both Boys Tired
Ezzard had had cuts over both eyes and blood streamed from Jersey Joe's battered nose at the end as both boys appeared dead tired.

Once again an underdog at odds 11 to 5, the slope shouldered old gent from Jersey taught Charles new respect for his zinging left hook.

Ezzard fought cautiously, apparently biding his time for a fast finish, but never was able to nail old Joe for the crusher.

In the last round, Ezzard was bombing desperately with long right hands that slithered around Walcott's neck. Walcott's ability to spin, to make Ezzard's punches miss, and counter with those damaging hooks, apparently won him the nod on two ballots.

Judges McTiernan and Tomasco gave that round to Walcott to win their close decision.

Oddly, the referee who gave only six rounds to Charles, voted him the 15th.

The verdict was given, a mixed reaction by the crowd of 21,599 that paid $210,313 into the box office. Another $175,000 was added to the receipts from the television rights.

Reds Take 5-3 Win From Phils To Sweep Series

Cincinnati, June 5—(AP)—Cincinnati's still crippled Reds had enough early inning clutch hitting today to take a 5 to 3 victory from the Philadelphia Phils and complete a sweep of their three-game series.

Although the Reds had some timely hitting when it was needed, the "goat" of the game was Johnny Wyrostek, the outfielder they only recently traded to the Phils.

In the first inning Wyrostek tried to make a shoestring catch of Grady Hatton's liner but the ball got away from him and went for a triple to set up one two-run inning.

Then in the second, the usually reliable Wyrostek let Bob Borkowski's low liner get away from him for a single and set the stage for the last of Cincinnati's two runs in that frame.

Early Wynn Blanks Bosox 5-0, Tribe Takes AL Lead

Boston, June 5—(AP)—Tricky Early Wynn, using a wide variety of soft pitches, enabled his Cleveland Indians to take over the American league's top place from the Boston Red Sox today by blanking them, 5-0, with a highly impressive fourth performance.

Despite Wynn's magic touch, the Indians registered only one earned run, the initial one, while beaming Ellis Kinder and Randy Gumpert for 11 safeties.

Wynn, who now has a 6-4 record, struck out eight and gave up four passes while taming the Red Sox for the third time this season.

Reviews Red Sox-Tiger Deal

Scribe Remembers Result Of Another Baseball Trade

By Whitney Martin
Philadelphia, June 5—(AP)—We understand the Boston fans consider the nine-player Red Sox-Tiger swap a fine deal if you live in Detroit. That is, they no like.

It's purely a matter of speculation as to how it will work out for the respective clubs. Sometimes a team which seems to have been taken for a ride, one way, in a deal turns out to have all the best of it.

The Giant-Brave trade of 1949 is a prime example of the unpredictable quality of such transactions. A lot of folks thought the New York club was tetching in the deal in sending two sluggers such as Willard Marshall and Sid Gordon, a slick-fielding shortstop in Buddy Kerr, and a pitcher named Sam Webb to Boston for Eddie Stanky, a broken-down second baseman, and Alvin Dark, a journeyman shortstop.

All Stanky and Dark did was to play a major role in the Giant pennant drive last year. Dark is now the team's captain, and Stanky departed to manage the Cardinals.

And where are the Giants who went to Boston in the deal? Kerr is in the minors; Marshall was sold to the Reds a couple of days ago; and Webb faded from view. Only Gordon remains to remind Brave fans of the bleak December day when the deal was made.

So trying to figure out who got the best of whom in the Detroit-Red Sox swap is like guessing the intentions of a pup that is wagging its tail and barking at the same time. You just don't know which end to believe.

Walt Dropo seems to have been the most appetizing bait dangled by the Sox in the deal. He's a very large, very personable guy who has been something of an in and out. That is, he's been in and out of the majors for some time now, and his performance also has been in and out.

We have heard that the big Moose from Mooseup, Conn., has become the favorite booby boy up in Fenway Park since Ted Williams departed, and if that is so the change in scenery might be just what he needs. His latent power might have just the right outlet in Detroit.

The Red Sox wanted George Kell primarily, although personally we never saw too much difference between his play and that of Johnny Pesky, the friendly little guy Detroit got in the deal. Pesky's life-time batting average, in fact, is .315, three points higher than that of Kell, although Kell did lead the league in hitting once. Neither is a power hitter.

Hoot Evers, another new Bostonian, potentially is a fine ball player, but he has to prove it all over again. He had a sad season last year, and has been out nearly all this season to date, so it's up to him to show he can come back.

Dizzy Trout should be a good relief man for the Sox, and Johnny Lipon a handyman in the infield, filling in when some regular has a stomach ache or something.

The Tigers got a promising young power hitter in Don Lenhardt, as well as a scrappy third baseman in Fred Hatfield and a so-so pitcher in Bill Wight in the deal.

We have heard it hinted that the trade might bring Boston the pennant, but, as mentioned, only time will tell how such a deal will work out. If Dropo and Lenhardt start popping the ball out of the park in Detroit and Kell and Evers fail to materially help the Sox, it would be a bad deal from the Boston standpoint.

Detroit really had little to lose in such a gambling deal, as it's difficult to get down below the bottom of the standings, which is where the Tigers are reposing at the moment.

LIONS CONTRIBUTE $1,000 TO SALVATION ARMY FUND

It was a unanimous decision of the Lions club members that led to their pledge this week of $1,000 for the Salvation Army's new building fund. Lion President Dick Lukeman, center figure in the picture, announces the gift, the first substantial contribution made by a service club in the campaign.

The majority of the Lions are taking an active part in the first drive ever conducted by the local Salvation Army in an effort to erect a new and roomier building, that would offer wider sanctuary for the needy. The club expects to earn the money for the pledge through future projects, in handling the concessions at the stock car races in July and at the Morgan County Fair.

Major Henri Servalis, who has served the Salvation Army here for many years, beams as he stands at the left to receive the Lions' offering.

At the right is Dick Stratman, general chairman of the campaign, who said of the club's pledge, "This grand gesture may serve as a goal toward which other groups can strive."

"The community should be proud of the Lions for their fine support of a cause so close to the interests of community life. The citizens of Jacksonville should back any venture the club undertakes for such a worthy cause."

No Room For The Lazy, Speaker Tells FFA Boys

By The Journal Courier Farm Editor — "You can't farm the way your dad did. The farm of tomorrow will be a scientific, mechanized, highly competitive business. There'll be no room for the inefficient, the lazy or the coward."

That's what Charles B. Shuman, president of the Illinois Agricultural Association, told the 1500 boys who are attending the annual convention of the Illinois Association, Future Farmers of America, now meeting at the Champaign junior high school.

Shuman's address was one of the highlights of the three day program. He reviewed the progress attained by agrarians, beginning with the days when the feudal lord bought the serfs when he bought the land, through the days of land and slavery to the present time, when the man who raises food is a free man "at least in the United States of North America."

Shuman assailed the ideology of Director of Agriculture Charles Brannan and his followers, "those men with low views who would put the farmer back on the subsistence level. They call farming a 'way of life.' It's a business. The best tomorrow is in agriculture."

There are three requirements, thought: (1) You must have education and training for the job and you boys have gotten a fine start. (2) The second phase isn't complicated, but it is becoming increasingly unpopular—hard work. (3) The third and last phase is the hardest of all, the realization that you must accept responsibilities, make your own decisions and stand on your own feet.

"If you can't measure up to these requirements, you'd better move to town and get a job where the boss will give you a check every week."

The delegates from the 326 chapters applauded Shuman, but they gave a bigger welcome to pert Donna Huston, 17, of Mt. Pulaski, president of the Illinois Association, Future Homemakers of America, who promised "complete cooperation with you to make America strong and better."

Receive State Awards — State farmer awards for excellence in the vocational agriculture work went to 394 youths Thursday night. Those in the Journal Courier area included Henry R. Carls and Gene Armstrong of Virginia; William Ducey and Don Alan Neal of Pittsfield; John Crawford, Arenzville; Frederick Lakamp, Chapin; Richard Bergschneider, Franklin; Ivan Heaton, Jim Hembrough, and Richard VanBeeber of Jacksonville high school and Raymond Duxer, Waverly.

The Newark chapter was judged the best chapter in the state, an honor that was earned by Franklin in 1951. The lively group from Morgan county won a gold emblem award this year, however, and the adviser, Roland Espenschied, received an honorary state farmer degree last night.

Charles Wayland Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Young of Murphysboro, a member of the Carbondale community high school F.F.A. was named Star State Farmer of Illinois Thursday night. This is the highest honor given by the State Association of Future Farmers of America. Charles is one of 17,000 Illinois high school boys who are studying vocational agriculture.

Charles, who is 15, is a junior.

Truckers To Pay Higher License Fees For 1952 — Springfield, Ill., June 5 (AP)—Attorney General Ivan A. Elliott said today he will advise Secretary of State Edward J. Barrett to begin collecting higher truck license fees voted by the 1951 legislature.

Elliott made the statement shortly after U. S. Supreme Court Justice Minton refused in Washington to stay collection of the higher charges.

The stay was sought by truckers appealing an Illinois supreme court judgment upholding the license fee boosts.

The attorney general said he will advise Barrett as soon as formal notification of Minton's action is received in Springfield.

Barrett has been selling licenses at the old, lower rates under a temporary order issued by Chief Justice Daily of the state supreme court. Daily's order expires today.

A spokesman for Barrett said that when word comes from Elliott sale of licenses will be suspended entirely for a brief period until the secretary can set up machinery for assessing the new charges.

The new fees, providing increases up to 300 per cent in heavier weight classifications, originally were slated to go into effect last January but litigation over their validity caused the postponement.

The 1951 law was designed to add $20,000,000 annually to state road building revenues, starting this year, and another $8,000,000 a year beginning in 1954.

20th Atomic Blast Since 1951 Flashes Across Nevada Sky

Las Vegas, Nev., June 5—(AP)—The eighth atomic blast of the spring series flashed across the southern Nevada sky before dawn today.

The detonation was touched off at the government's Yucca Flat test site at 4:55 a. m. (Pacific Daylight Time) and was clearly visible here, 65 miles from the site. No troop maneuvers were scheduled. The test was the 20th held here since the Atomic Energy Commission began using the Nevada site in January of 1951. The current series is believed to be near an end.

Because there was no advance public notice of this shot few persons were up to see the flash.

Shortly after the detonation, the Atomic Energy Commission announced that the shot was from a 300-foot tower and that approximately 751 mice were used in tests for radioactivity effects. The announcement did not say how close to ground zero the animals were placed.

S. Jacksonville License Stickers Now Available

Walter J. Schildman, village clerk of South Jacksonville, announced at a village board meeting Wednesday night that stickers for the 1952-53 wheel tax are on hand and may be obtained at any time upon payment of a five dollar license fee. He added that the final date for paying the tax is August 1.

The tax, which was instituted last year, requires the payment of a five dollar fee on each vehicle. A resident must pay a separate fee for each car or vehicle he owns.

Lewis Murgatroyd announced that the streets and alleys committee of the board, of which he is chairman, will inspect the thoroughfares of the community next week to determine needs and make plans for repairs during the coming year. The committee also will study the amount of the motor fuel tax funds which the village should receive from the state.

A number of property owners and residents of the village appeared to complain of faulty drainage in their areas. They said the drainage facilities during rains do not carry off surface water rapidly enough and some streets in the village consequently are often flooded.

The delegation was told that steps are being taken to correct the situation.

In a final matter, a petition signed by about 25 residents was received. The petition protested against the construction of a roller skating rink on South Main street near the southern limits of the village. A delegation of citizens appeared to argue for the petition.

However, what promised to be a lively session collapsed when it was announced that the parties contemplating the project were no longer interested and had withdrawn a request for a permit. The petition was placed on file.

City Springs At Carrollton Will Undergo Repair

Carrollton—The Carrollton city council members passed an ordinance Tuesday evening at the regular meeting authorizing the sale of a $20,000 bond issue. The proceeds to be used for the improving of the city springs from which the Carrollton city water is obtained.

The bonds will be financed through the Alton branch of the Municipal Bond Corporation and are to be retired solely from revenue of the water department and from no other source.

Following the publication of the ordinance the Council will advertise for bids for the work which is to be done at the City Springs. The work will include the installing of a new pump in the pump house, the installing of a new suction line from the spring to the pump house, the roofing of the spring house and the installing of a new chlorination plant.

CALCULATED DESTRUCTION—More than four months of time, $200,000 in money, and the efforts of a 60-man crew have been necessary to effect this scene of wartime destruction at Olney, Md. Designed to serve as a training ground for Civil Defense workers, it embodies most demolition problems that might be met after an air raid.

Telephone Co. Now Installing 3 Switchboards

Installation of three large new switchboards in the plant of the Illinois Telephone Company was begun Thursday by a crew of technicians of the Kellogg Switchboard & Supply Company of Kansas City, Mo. The switchboards and accompanying equipment were purchased at a cost of $25,000, according to W. O. Randall, manager of the telephone company here.

"Three new boards will materially improve local service," Mr. Randall said, in announcing the arrival of the equipment. He explained that the boards really provide three and one-half positions, and will be connected with 240 lines of new equipment.

Addition of these boards now gives the local telephone plant 15 full positions. Five additional operators will be needed beginning about Aug. 1, when the new switchboard are placed in full operation.

WHALES YIELD PERFUME INGREDIENT
 Santa Ana, Calif.—P—Huntington Beach lieaguards Robert Isenor and Fred Swartz sighted a sick-looking whale recently and ran for two large garbage cans.
 The next day they filled the cans with a floating mass they hoped was ambergris found in the ocean near the Santa Ana river mouth.
 Ambergris, a secretion from whales, is used as an ingredient in the perfume industry, the lieaguards said. It is believed to command a high price.

 XXXIV
 IN 15 minutes the usual party was complete. Brinsley Shaw and Charlotte Dean, Hubert Canning and his wife Isolda—all were there except the Lawrence.
 Basil, keeping his eye on Zimmer's tall figure, noticed without surprise that he and Otto were not once within speaking distance of each other but neither one of them ever left the room.
 Zimmer and a woman in silver drew near one of the open windows. Light from a lamp behind them high lighted Zimmer's blond head, but the woman's face was a blur in the shadow.
 Isolda Canning's voice was low and desperate. "I'm frightened, Max."
 "What are you talking about?"
 "Perdita Lawrence. She's in the hospital. She may die. The radio said 'traffic accident.' Max, were you driving the car?"
 "Be quiet!" Zimmer's voice was low and furious. "You're out of your mind. I give you my word I had nothing to do with Perdita's accident. I've been wondering why she and Lawrence were late."
 A sob roughened Isolda's voice.
 "Do you think she'll talk now?"
 Zimmer gripped the edge of the window grille with both hands.
 "No. She can't talk. She can't let her father know the truth. If she did, I would tell him the same story as hers with different motivation and that would be unbearable for Perdita. And for her father."
 "But, if she's delirious?"
 "That's improbable, but not impossible. However, in a business like this you have to take some risks."
 "I don't want to take a risk like that."
 "Don't you realize I have a plan?"
 "You're not fooling me? If you are, I swear I'll get out from under by going to the police myself before anyone else."
 "Speak more softly. You're hysterical. You'll feel better when you've had a cocktail. It'll be along soon."
 "But, Max, what are we going to do?"
 "You can trust me. Now talk about something else."
 Listlessly she followed him over to the piano that stood by the next window and looked over his shoulder as he opened a bound volume.
 "These lieder of Schumann's?"
 "I can't read music."
 "But you must have heard this."
 Contempt tinged his voice a little.
 "At the movies, if nowhere else.
 Don't you recognize the first two bars?" Softly he struck four notes
 —D, D sharp, F, F sharp.
 "Now!" Basil stepped out of the shrubbery and walked toward the French windows. Lloyd followed him wonderingly.
 Otto approached Isolda. There were two of the colored cocktail glasses on his silver tray—one sapphire, one aquamarine. The sapphire glass was on Isolda's side of the tray as Otto presented it.
 Her hand was moving toward the glass when Basil vaulted the grille of the French window.
 "I'll take that." He snatched the sapphire glass from her hand.
 Isolda's lips parted in utter astonishment. Otto began to shake so that a little of the other cocktail spilled on the tray. Zimmer stood like stone, an unlighted cigarette between his lips.
 "Dr. Willing! I didn't expect another of your intrusions so soon!"
 His stare was insolently calm, but his voice vibrated uncontrollably.
 Isolda screamed. Basil looked down the room where she was looking and saw Foyle standing in the archway that led to the hall.
 A uniformed policeman was moving toward Otto.
 "You can arrest Zimmer," said
 Basil. "I have the poisoned drink."

SCHOOL CURRICULUM CRITICIZED Tel Aviv—P—Israel children are being somewhat overtaken with music and undernourished with regard to painting and drawing, according to British poet Stephen Spender, who recently visited many Israel schools.
 He was somewhat critical of the general over-emphasis on music and the emotional release provided by
 it. Drawing and painting are a more constructive form of self-expression, he said.
